There was born to the wife of Jesse R. Hulet, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anson H. Smith, a baby boy, the tot making his appearance Thursday afternoon. Mother and child are getting along nicely. Mr. Hulet came down from Holbrook Thursday night to get acquainted with his son.

James Kenney, who has been a ranger of this county under J. P. Gideon, departed to Nevada last Wednesday for the purpose of gathering a large number of horses for the allies. Europe is drawing largely on the United States for every class of supplies and have already purchased many thousands of horses, mules and burros to send to the front.

Tommy Clark, formerly a pitcher on the Kingman baseball team, was operated on at the Indian school, at Truxton, a few days ago, by Drs. Bucher and Riggs. The operation was said to have been successful, and Tommy is in a fair way to recover. Dr. Bucher reports that the young fellow was in a bad way, the appendix being in an advanced state of decay.

Tuesday last County Assessor F. L. Hunt sold to H. M. Force the hoisting plant and some other machinery on the Victor-Paymaster mine, on account of taxes. No one appears to have had charge of the property, the former agent having removed from the address given the past several years. The property is the second noth extension of the Cerbat and at one time was a producer of high grade ore.

The June report of the automobiles crossing the Needles bridge give the number at 293, approximately ten each day of the month. This is not so bad when it is understood that there are not so many automobiles traveling west as was anticipated, on account of the late spring and conditions presented by the war in Europe. During the fall months it is expected that many thousands will pass over the Old Trails Route.

In the suit of George Roper against William O'Dea, tried Tuesday and Wednesday, before Judge Ellis, a decision in favor of Mr. O'Dea was handed down. The suit was for a commission on the sale of the Pilgrim mines, Mr. Roper alleging that he was entitled to a commission from Mr. O'Dea and part of the commission paid to Fred Stull. S. D. Stewart was counsel for Mr. Roper and Ross H. Blakely represented Mr. O'Dea. The cause required nearly two days to complete.

The Kansas City Structural Steel company has been awarded the contract for the automobile bridge over the Colorado river at Topock for a sum aggregating about 75,000$. The company is to begin the work at once under the direction of the County Engineer of San Bernardino and an officer of the war department. The bridge is to be a fine structure. San Bernardino county will have to construct a tunnel to reach the west approach to the bridge, while on the east side a heavy fill will have to be made or a trestle run out.

A Mexican wedding with the usual finale took place at Needles last Saturday evening. Claude Fletcher, an officer, being shot and badly wounded in trying to quell the incipient riot that was on when he arrived on the scene. Another officer had preceded him to the place, but the Mexicans had taken his gun away and were about to do him great bodily injury, when Fletcher arrived. The Mexican who had the other officers gun opened fire and then the whole gathering piled onto him and he was shot four times. Other officers came up and one or two arrests were made. The wounded officer was taken to Los Angeles, where it is stated he will recover.

Kingman Chamber of Commerce.

Last Tuesday evening the Kingman Chamber of Commerce met at its rooms in the George building and transacted a large amount of important business. The Chamber decided to make the temporary organization permanent and retain the temporary officers for the permanent organization.

The matter of a descriptive pamphlet of the county was discussed and turned over to the publicity committee for action. Other matters tending to the furtherance of the good work inaugurated by the Chamber a few months ago was discussed and the general committees put to work to get them lined up.

Death of Little Child.

Last Wednesday afternoon, Irving, the four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Whitney, died at the home of his parents after an operation for appendicitis had been performed. The little fellow was too delicate to stand the shock of the operation.

The funeral took place from the Catholic church Thursday afternoon, a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives following the little form to its last resting place.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney have the heartfelt sympathy of the people of Kingman in their great loss.

Al. Hoffman returned from a trip to the coast a few days ago.

Ferd. A. Wilde, who has been spending the past month at the Coast is home again.

Arno and Lodema Cook came in from Los Angeles a few days ago and are visiting with their father.

Mrs. Leonard Hoffman and two sons, and accompanied by a niece, returned from Los Angeles the first of the week.

T. J. Murphy Weds.

Thomas J. Murphy, one of the best known business men of Needles, was united in marriage to the niece of Bishop Conaty, of the Los Angeles see, last Wednesday. The young lady was Miss Annie McDermott, a handsome and gifted young woman of Los Angeles. The ceremony was performed in the church of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and after a wedding breakfast the happy couple departed to the east by way of the Canadian Pacific railroad.

The many friends of Tom Murphy will wish him and his bride a long life of wedded bliss.

Representative Mahoney Married.

Wednesday last at Prescott W. P. Mahoney and Alice Metzger were united in marriage. Mrs. Mahoney is well and popularly known in Prescott, while Mr. Mahoney is one of the best known legislators of the State, representing Mohave county in the legislative body. The happy couple arrived in Kingman Thursday morning and will go to Oatman, where they will reside. Their many friends in Mohave and other parts of Arizona will wish them a long and happy married life.

Tom Sickles, who went to Los Angeles a month ago, where he was operated on for some constitutional ailment at the California hospital, returned home a few days ago looking very much improved in health.

For Hay Fever Or Asthma.

Many persons dread July on account of the recurrence of hay fever. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound long has been recognized as the ideal remedy for hay fever and asthma, because it heals and soothes that raw, rasping feeling in the throat and eases the choking sensation. It allays inflammation and irritation and brings about easy and natural breathing. Contains no habit-forming drugs. H. H. Watkins.
